FREE TRADE AND ITS EFFECTS.

THE Philadelphia Times (Ind.) declares that in the event of the adoption of a free-trade policy or the passage of the Morrison bill by the Democratic caucus, the result of the next Presidential election may be safely footed up as follows:

DEMOCRATIC STATES	REPUBLICAN STATES
Alabama.....12	California.....8
Arkansas.....7	Colorado.....3
Delaware.....3	Connecticut.....6
Florida.....4	Georgia.....12
Illinois.....22	Idaho.....1

We think Florida, Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina might have been left in the list of doubtful States on the Presidential ticket, though the Republicans would make a heavy gain of Congressmen in them all. It is easy to see, however, that the politician who is rendering most service to the Republicans at present is Morrison. We are not sure but the Republicans, irrespective of their views on the question of protection and free trade, ought to combine and present some sort of testimonial to Morrison for the very valuable and telling services he has rendered the Republican party during this session. He has lightened the labor and increased the ease of carrying the country for the Republican candidates next fall by fully 75 per cent within three months.—Inter Ocean.

Ben Butler is doing more effective work for a hell gate explosion at the National Democratic convention than any other man.

JOHN KELLY the Tammany boss and Democratic terror declares Democrats in caucus made fools of themselves in going back on their own boasted offspring, the Morrison bill. He thinks there is no chance for a party that sneaks, snarls, and never bites.

GRANT'S OPINION.

Gen. Grant is noted for saying comprehensive things in a succinct and striking manner. His latest deliverance of that kind embraces only 13 words, but it tells the whole truth as well as if he had elaborated it to the extent of a column. It reads thus: "The Republicans will have no difficulty in electing any man they shall nominate." That covers the ground completely and accurately, and will be found very easy to remember.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.
